FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Criminals Off the Streets - Multiple Search Warrants Served

Coordinated Efforts Garner Suspects, Drugs, & Weapons

FREDERICK, Md. (Dec. 22, 2020) – At approximately 4 a.m. this morning, members of the Frederick High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) group executed eight search warrants within Frederick and Washington Counties.

With assistance from SWAT teams from the Frederick County Sheriff's Office, Frederick Police Department, Maryland State Police, Washington County Sheriff's Office, and the Montgomery County Police Department two suspects were apprehended with the collection of multiple weapons and numerous amounts of drugs.

"This investigation was a coordinated effort between the Frederick County Sheriff's Office, the Frederick Police Department, Maryland State Police, Brunswick Police Department, Pennsylvania State Police, Franklin County Drug Task Force, and Homeland Security Investigations under the Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network (MCIN)," said Sheriff Chuck Jenkins. "MCIN member sites allowed us to identify, disrupt, and dismantle these criminal organizations through this inter-agency collaborative effort to make Maryland a safer place."

The teams served the following locations with search warrants:

- 100 Block of Willowdale Drive, Frederick
- 400 Block of Megan Court, Frederick
- 400 Block of Shannon Court, Frederick
- 1100 Block of Key Parkway, Frederick
- 1400 Block of Key Parkway, Frederick
- 1600 Block of Misty Meadow Circle, Frederick
- 1800 Block of Weybridge Drive, Frederick
- 9500 Block of Stottlemeyer Road, Boonsboro

As a result of this investigation and search, the teams seized the following cash, weapons, and an estimated $120,000 in drugs, including:

- Approximately $23,614 cash
- .45-caliber handgun
- .22-caliber handgun
- .25-caliber handgun
- 9-mm handgun
- 1.219.2 grams (approximately 2.6 lbs.) cocaine
- 120.5 grams of crack cocaine

- 88 grams of PCP (Phencyclidine)
- 160 milligrams of Methadone (opioid)

Deputies detained Mark Linn Randolph, age 48, and Elizabeth Jenine Snyder, age 40, both of Boonsboro, Maryland, as a result of the served warrants. Randolph's charges include possession of cocaine and PCP, possession with intent to distribute cocaine and PCP, and possession of a firearm after a felony conviction. Snyder's charges include possession of cocaine and PCP, and possession with intent to distribute cocaine and PCP. Officers booked both suspects into the Washington County Detention Center.
